DECA Students Receive Awards

At the DECA District 16 contest held at Jefferson Forest High School on Tuesday, February 20th, four Appomattox County High School students won awards.

Debra Fleshman won first place award in Sales Judging; Dennis Chenault won second place award in Public Speaking; Milton Ferguson placed fourth in the Student of the Year contest; and Glenn Cumby placed fourth in the Group Sales Demonstration.

Debra will go to the State DECA Leadership Conference in Roanoke on March 23, 24 and 25th to compete in Sales Judging on the Steve level.

Homemaker Hints

by Rebecca M. Johnson, Extension Agent

Extension Homemakers are reminded that the Consumer Education Tour to "de John Bath Boutique" which was postponed due to bad weather, has been rescheduled for Monday, March 19. We will meet at the Court House in Appomattox at 9:00. Maps will be available.

Another program which homemakers maybe interested in is the Estate Planning meeting, to be held March 12 and 19 at the District Extension Office (located across from the barber shop on Main Street). These sessions will begin at 7:30 and last about two hours and will cover subjects such as wills, deeds, trusts, sales, gifts, and insurance. Bring your husband and come to these very important meetings.

Anyone interested in joining a Consumer Health Association is invited to attend a meeting on Monday, March 12 at 1:15. This group will meet periodically and advise the Central Virginia Health Planning Council on health problems, lack of access to medical services, non-existant health services which are needed, and suggested solutions to these health problems. For more information contact Lt. J. L. Hedrick or myself.

We find it necessary to exchange the April and June Extension Homemaker programs, so the April program will be Trimming and Pruning Bushes and Shrubs. Home and Community Beautification leaders should be present at the leader training meeting on Thursday, March 22 at 1:30. We will meet in the County Extension Office (across from the P.O.) Mr. J. A. Smith will conduct the training.

The District III Spring meeting will be held on March 27 at Sweet Briar College, beginning at 9:15. Lunch tickets must be purchased from me by March 16, at a cost of $2.60. Visitors are welcome.

6TH YEAR STUDENTS STUDY THE MIDDLE AGES

The custom and styles of the Middle Ages were displayed at Appomattox Intermediate School as the 200 6th year students completed their study of this period and exhibited their projects which included such activities as model castles, replicas of armor, shields, swords, Vicking Ships, Dolls were dressed in styles of that period; art work included coat of arms, murals showing castle life and jousting contests, hero time line and maps.

Winners At Western Auto

During the Grand Opening celebration and sale at the Western Auto Store, now under the management of Lonnie Reynolds, drawing for the grand prizes took place on Saturday afternoon.

The winner of the grand prizes, shown above from left to right, were Mrs. Doris Bryant of Route 3, the winner of a bicycle; and Mrs. Eunice Crews of Route 4, the winner of a recliner.

Grand Opening specials will continue through March 31st and the management invites you to stop by for a good buy.

LOTERIA IN LATIN?

There was quite a turn of events during the ACHS Caesari Liberi Latin Club meeting on Feb. 28, The program committee consisting of Julie Chambers, Joyce Foster and Suzanne Kanipe, provided a change of pace when they introduced to the club Spanish Bingo. The game is called "Loteria" and it is played by calling out Spanish words for picture symbols on the Loteria cards.

The Latin Club members proved to be quite adept at this Spanish game although a little English was used to speed the program along. Winners in Loteria were Tim Burnett, Darlene Johnson, Al Sears, Kay Stratton, Ricky Lewis, Gary Carter, Debbie Rush, Mike Gallier, Debbie Stratton, Ricky Wingfield and Delephine Lewis, It all goes to show that there can be harmony and fun between people though they speak different languages.

HERE'S A TAX TIP:

When filing your state and federal income tax forms you need not include benefits received under the GI Bill! That includes educational allowances pension, compensation, grants to disabled veterans for wheelchair homes or specially equipped motor vehicles, proceeds from GI insurance, GI insurance dividends, and burial allowances. Be sure, however, to declare any interest earned on GI insurance dividends left on deposit with the VA -- it's not a benefit under the GI Bill.
